

DRIVING A BARGAIN

in real estate is no easy matter now-a-days. If you are not an adept in the business it is always the best plan to consult a reliable, trustworthy and honorable man who makes a business of real estate, and understands values, both present and prospective. If it is us, we will save you money and insure you future profit.

Complete abstracts to all lands and lots in Saline Co.

VanDyke & Co.
West End, Bank of Saline.

LOCAL NEWS.

E. Y. Harvey left Monday for Boonville.

Dr. Nepper left Saturday night for Fulton.

Have you seen those beautiful percales at Wright's.

H. H. Hawkins is carrying his arm in a sling this week.

Those crepon skirt patterns at Wright's are beautiful.

Will Striker and J. C. Patterson spent Tuesday in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Tye Garnett, of Slater, were visitors Monday.

Ask to see those swell dress goods at the New York Store.

Miss Beulah Cave, of Huntsville, is the guest of Mrs. John Specht.

The New York Store is certainly preparing for a lively spring.

Mrs. Thomas Boatright is now convalescing, after a week's illness.

Dr. W. R. Wiatt returned to his home in East St. Louis on Friday.

Congressman Cooney and wife returned Monday from Washington.

The newest thing in "Youngs hats" is ready at the New York Store.

Miss Georgie Robinson, of Carrollton is the guest of Mrs. Mary Harvey.

Mrs. C. L. Lackey will spend the entire week in Marshall, drilling the musicians for the opera.

We understand that Mr. John Reynolds of Slater, will move to Marshall soon and will occupy the residence vacated by Robert Reynolds, on West St.

French challies in beautiful tints just received at the New York Store.

Rev. E. Y. Ginn from Afrow Rock, was a visitor in Marshall Monday.

Large assortment of black crepon skirt patterns just received at Wright's.

Wm. Putsch has returned from Arrow Rock where he spent last week.

Those beautiful dress goods at the New York Store are the talk of the town.

The young people of Napton are preparing to give a play in the near future.

The handsomest assortment of silk gingham in beautiful tints at Wright's.

Mrs. L. W. Scott has been quite sick for a week at her home on East Arrow.

When you see any thing new at the New York Store, you may know it is correct.

Mrs. Maurice Hagedorn has been quite sick for some days, but is improving.

Mrs. George Davis visited friends in Kansas City Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Guthrey left Sunday for a visit to relatives at Springfield, Mo.

D. Wing, of Lamine, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. J. McMahon this week.

B. F. Shepherd expects to leave this week for Colorado, where he will join his family.

L. P. Viley has returned from Hot Springs, very much benefitted from his stay there.

Money at 6 per cent, no commission, interest rebated on partial payment. ALLEN & LEONARD.

Mr. Parker, who was one of our Missouri volunteers, took dinner Monday with Geo. McMillan on East Arrow St.

Mr and Mrs I. E. Holstein are in St Louis buying goods for their millinery establishment; they will return Sunday night.

Miss Agnes Spencer and Miss Erickson and Gus Mayer were entertained at dinner, by Judd Parrish at his home Saturday.

J. J. Meacham, representing The Barton Shoe House, of Kansas City, spent Sunday in the city, the guest of Miss Minnie Jurden.

For 30 days we will make our $2.50 photos at $1.75 per dozen. We are adding a new line of up-to-date accessories this week, and we are prepared to give the public the nicest work ever made at this price in Marshall at Bruce's Art Gallery.

The handsomest line of embroideries for the least money, ever seen in Marshall at Wright's.

Minor Cooper is expected back this week from a pleasant visit to friends in St. Louis.

Hon. Frank P. Seabee, of Kansas City, was the guest of Frank Boyd and family Friday.

Miss Lily Sparks came down from Blackburn and spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

S. W. Armentrout spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in this city and left Monday.

See to it that your photographs are over Hutchings' signature. It is a guarantee of excellence.

The Alpha C. L. S. C. had a pleasant meeting with Mrs. Edgar Place on Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. W. T. McClure gave a lecture on Friday night to the Epworth League at Higginsville.

P. L. Warren has accepted the position made vacant by Wilson Fisher at the New York Store.

Do you want a handsome tailor made dress, or separate skirt, if you do, don't fail to see Wright.

John Kirkpatrick, principal of the school at Boonville, spent Sunday with his parents in this city.

Have you seen the handsome line of french piques in plain white stripes and polka dots at Wright's.

Capt. Steve Price, of Kansas City, is spending the week in the city and is stopping at Hotel Hurt.

Do you want a handsome tailor made dress, or separate skirt: if you do don't fail to see Wright. 2t

Miss Mary Smith, the guest of Mrs. Wm Napton for some days, has returned to her home at Napton.

Miss Handock left Wednesday for St Louis after a delightful visit with Miss Hicks, in our city.

Little Charles Smith who has been so dangerously ill, is improving right along, although still very weak.

T. D. Potter and son, Henry returned Tuesday from Chicago, where they went with a carload of mules.

The many friends of Mrs. L. P. Bowen will be sorry to learn that she is very ill at her home in Monroe, La.

Judge J. W. Sparks returned to Jefferson City Monday after spending several days with his family in the city.

Gordon Letterman returned Monday to his home in Louisiana, after a visit to his Mother, Mrs. L. W. Boyer.

Theodore Mayer returned Monday morning from New York with stocks of beautiful goods for the trade.

These lovely wool and silk polkadots are the swellest things worn in the East. Just received at the New York Store.

Miss Lizzie Koontz has returned from K. C., where she spent some weeks in the interest of her business.

Mr. Stephens and daughter, of Bunceton were the guests this week of his daughter, Miss May at Mo. Valley College.

Mrs. Annie Osborn and little Bessie Sparks of Kansas City are guests of Mr and Mrs Aubrey Conway on West Arrow St.

O. T. Goodwin never intends to be vaccinated anymore, small-pox or not. He has been sick in bed now for almost a week but hopes to be out soon.

PUBLIC SALE

I will sell at Public Auction on Saturday, March 11. 1899,

At Tom Conway's Mule Barn, Marshall, Mo.,

25 Head 2 and 3 year-old Mules,

Or Will Exchange for Aged Mules.

Sale to begin at 10 A. M.

TERMS—6 month credit on note with approved security.

MARION SPARKS.

COL. W. W. ROSE, Auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. VanDyke celebrated their 28th anniversary Tuesday evening by inviting a few couples to six o'clock dinner.

Miss Emma Vawter left this week for St. Louis where she shall be in a wholesale house until the spring trade opens.

John R. Hall, Jr., who is a page in the House at Jefferson City, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Matt W. Hall in this city.

Mrs. Nooe has purchased the house belonging to Mrs. Shemwell and has rented it to A. E. Loomis, who is moving into it this week.

Miss Nannie Cooper of Nelson, who has been quite sick for some days at the residence of her uncle, D. C. Gore is now convalescing.

We understand that Dr. W. C. Orear will build a new house on the lot recently purchased from Mr. Young, on North St.

John H. Cameron and wife, living near Slater, came up Sunday and spent the day, also Monday with Jerome Cameron and family.

We have now the cheapest money and on the most favorable terms ever offered in Saline Co. We pass on security and titles.

1341 NEWTON & BRYANT.

Miss Minnie Roller, who is employed by the Walter Baker Cocoa Co. Boston, left Monday afternoon for Arkansas City, Kansas. She will travel in Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa.

Lee Holliday came over from Fayette Friday to visit his wife and friends. He returned Monday taking his wife and son with him. Lee has many friends in Marshall who are always glad to see him.

The Fact and Fiction club met with Miss Agnes Spencer on Benton St., where the Century magazine was discussed. A question box on theatricals read was prepared by the programme committee.

Mrs. Minnie Barnett of Alma who has been assisting her sister Mrs. R. E. L. Smith in nursing little Charles, returned to her home Friday.

Mr. Dice spent Saturday and Sunday with Ola Grecian, at his home in Blosser and returned with a nice pair of ducks, the fruits of their labor.

It don't cost any more to buy Hutchings' Photographs than any other. The question for you to decide is, "who will make me the best work?"

Rev L. E. Gower and wife of Austin, Mo. is spending the week with his parents and wife in the city. Mr Gower is enroute to St. Louis where he will attend Conference.

Mrs. S. E. Bashford, a sister of Mrs. Dr. Martin, who is from Kentucky, but has been visiting in Blackburn for some weeks, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Martin this week.

Leslie Orear and family are moving into Mrs. Montague's house on East Arrow St. where, they will reside until they rebuild their residence which was burned.

Earl Haynes who has been lame-bound all winter with his lame foot, caused from stepping on a nail, was down town in the buggy Tuesday, but still unable to wear a shoe.

D. Fogle, of Williamsburg, Kansas, a wealthy merchant and who owns one of the finest stock farms in the state, has returned to his home, after a visit to his daughter, Mrs. C. N. Rand on West North St.

Get your photos at Bruce's art gallery for the next 30' days at $1 per dozen. This special offer is for strictly first class work, guaranteed durable, made on best material. Be sure you see our new samples before placing your orders.

Remember when in need of HARDWARE OR FURNITURE,

that B. F. Naylor H. & F. Co.'s store is the place to go. Special attention at present is called to our large line of

Bed Room Suits.

Do you need one if so we can SAVE YOU MONEY. Now is the time when you are looking for

HOUSEHOLD OUTFITS.

Come let us show you through and give you our prices. We are sure we can sell you.

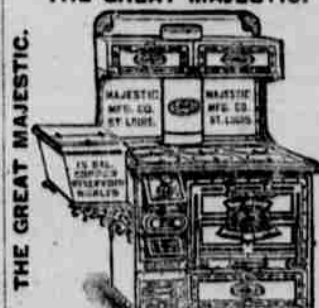

Very Respectfully,

B. F. Naylor H. & F. Co.

Terms Cash.

West Side Square.

THE GREAT MAJESTIC.

THE GREAT MAJESTIC.

Perfect in construction and operation, it will cook quicker with less fuel than any other stove known to the trade; being made of the very best material throughout—with ordinary care it will last a lifetime—it uses either wood or coal with entire satisfaction—it saves time, fuel and money—it will pay you to own one.

"There are hundreds of ranges made but only one Majestic." Call and see them.

Yours Truly,

W. H. HURT.

East Side Square, Marshall, Mo